

Now Playing: Daniel Reich Gallery, K48, John Connelly Presents

July 1 – August 1, 2003

Opening reception: Tuesday, July 1, 6 to 8pm

Note summer hours: Monday – Friday, 10am to 6pm

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

For the month of July, D'Amelio Terras has invited three emerging artistic programs—Daniel Reich Gallery, K48, and John Connelly Presents—to occupy our west 22nd St. ground floor space. Each will present a group exhibition and operate their businesses from within our walls, bringing an array of young artists, designers, and musicians to a wider audience. The spirit of collaboration central to exhibitor's programming will be highlighted by their juxtaposition at our gallery. D'Amelio Terras hopes to broaden the role of the contemporary art gallery to not only include recognition of individual talent but also to search for and highlight the energy, new ideas, and potential of alternative and emerging spaces.

John Connelly Presents has been open at 526 W. 26th St., Suite 1023, since November 2001. Prior to running the gallery full-time, John was a director of Andrea Rosen Gallery. He will present artwork by Asianpunkboy, Assume Vivid Astro Focus, David Altmejd, Matthew Brannon, Dearraindrop, Kim Fisher, General Idea, Wade Guyton, Karen Heagle, Sissel Kardel, Bruce La Bruce, Slava Mogutin, Gerard Maynard, and Mungo Thompson.

K48 has been publishing magazines and organizing performances, installations, and exhibitions since 2001. Primarily run by Scott Hug with the assistance of Bengala, they have published three issues and a fourth is due in August 2003. They will present limited edition audio CDs, CD-ROMs, and DVDs by over seventy-five artists, slackers, anarchists, poets, and punk rockers.

Daniel Reich Gallery has been open at 308 W. 21st St. #2A since December 2001. This autumn, the gallery will move to a storefront space in Chelsea. Prior to opening his own exhibition space, Daniel was director of Pat Hearn Gallery. He will be presenting "The Birdman Returns," featuring artwork by Christian Holstad, Bjorn Copeland, Nick Mauss, Paul P, and others.

For press and visuals requests, please contact Brian Sholis at 212.352.9460 or brian@damelioterras.com

Next exhibition: Erica Baum, September 2- September 27, 2003.

D'Amelio Terras represents Polly Apfelbaum, Erica Baum, Delia Brown, Tony Feher, Joanne Greenbaum, Glenn Ligon, John Morris, Rei Naito, Rika Noguchi, Damián Ortega, Cornelia Parker, Miguel Rio Branco, Karin Sander, and Yoshihiro Suda.

Now Playing: Daniel Reich Gallery, K48, John Connelly Presents

July 1 – August 1, 2003

Opening reception: Tuesday, July 1, 6 to 8pm

Note summer hours: Monday – Friday, 10am to 6pm

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

For the month of July, D'Amelio Terras has invited three emerging artistic programs — Daniel Reich Gallery, K48, and John Connelly Presents—to occupy our west 22nd St. ground floor space. Each will operate their businesses within our walls and present exhibitions that will bring together an array of emerging artists, writers, designers, and musicians. The success of recent alternative art fairs such as the Stray Show in Chicago and Scope in New York depended heavily on a spirit of collaboration and dialogue between participating galleries. It is our hope that the communal environment and the collaborative nature of this venture will create a dialogue and energy that will benefit our respective programs and all of our visitors. This exhibition broadens the role of the contemporary art gallery to not only include the recognition and exhibition of individual emerging artists but also to search for and highlight the energy, new ideas, and talents of the founders of emerging and alternative spaces.

Daniel Reich Gallery has been open at 308 W. 21st St. #2A since December 2001. This autumn, the gallery will move to a storefront space in Chelsea. Prior to opening his own exhibition space, Daniel was director of Pat Hearn Gallery. He will be presenting “The Birdman Returns,” featuring artwork by Christian Holstad, Bjorn Copeland, Nick Mauss, Paul P, and others.

K48 has been publishing magazines and organizing performances, installations, and exhibitions since 2001. Primarily run by Scott Hug with the assistance of Bengala, they have published three issues and a fourth is due in August 2003. They will present limited edition audio CDs, CD-ROMs, and DVDs by over seventy-five artists, slackers, anarchists, poets, and punk rockers.

John Connelly Presents has been open at 526 W. 26th St., Suite 1023, since November 2001. Prior to running the gallery full-time, John was a director of Andrea Rosen Gallery. He will present artwork by Asianpunkboy, Assume Vivid Astro Focus, David Altmejd, Matthew Brannon, Dearraindrop, Kim Fisher, General Idea, Wade Guyton, Karen Heagle, Sissel Kardel, Bruce La Bruce, Slava Mogutin, Gerard Maynard, and Mungo Thompson.

For press and visuals requests, please contact Brian Sholis at 212.352.9460 or brian@damelioterras.com

Next exhibition: Erica Baum, September 2- September 27, 2003.

D'Amelio Terras represents Polly Apfelbaum, Erica Baum, Delia Brown, Tony Feher, Joanne Greenbaum, Glenn Ligon, John Morris, Rei Naito, Rika Noguchi, Damián Ortega, Cornelia Parker, Miguel Rio Branco, Karin Sander, and Yoshihiro Suda.